

FINANCIAL LITERACY CAMP AT CMMU ULUBERIA ON 09.12.2015

Delivery of Banking services and credit at an affordable cost to the vast section of urban poor and also providing financial counseling for savings, loans insurance, etc. are major objective of National Urban Livelihood Mission. Towards achieving Universal Financial inclusion in the Uluberia City CMMU Uluberia organized a Financial Literacy Camp at the adjacent ground of Uluberia Municipality building on 09.12.15. After inaugural speech of the chairman Sri Arjun sarkar, City Project Officer, NULM, Managers of different Nationalized banks of Uluberia Municipality area gave brief presentations before the large number of SHG members and common public regarding opening of Bank A/C & loan formalities. Sri Tarak Dutta, Project Co-ordinator, NULM, State Urban Development Agency also narrated the different aspects of financial literacy, mainly banking services, credit facility to SHG members.

Representatives of the ITI Howrah Homes assured for providing technical support if needed for organizing various technical training programmes for the Urban Poor of the Uluberia Municipality area. Janab Haider Aziz Swafi, Hon'ble Minister of Correctional Administration, govt. of W.B. in his speech also assured full support to be provided to the poor for getting loans and of their projects.

City Project Officer
Uluberia Municipality